

5th Madeleine Foundation Regional Conference

Close to Junction 18, M6 AND MACCLESFIELD (exact venue to be confirmed to those who register)

Saturday and Sunday 19 and 20 June 2010

The Madeleine Foundation will be holding another of its round-the-country conferences near Macclesfield on 19 & 20 June.

As per usual, the Saturday event will start with a free lunch from 12noon to 2pm with the main meeting from 2pm to about 5.30pm. We hope the discussion will be more focussed this time and we would particularly welcome those who would like to present a short paper or lead a discussion on any subject connected related to what Clarence Mitchell on 19 February 2010 called 'a complete mystery'.

There may be limited free accommodation and there is budget accommodation nearby.

There will be a social event on Saturday night for those staying over until Sunday and further discussions during Sunday.

For further enquiries, or to register, please contact our Secretary, Tony Bennett, at ajsbenett@btinternet.com or telephone 01279 635789 any time between 9am and 9pm (leave message on BT Ansaphone if there is no reply).
