Dear Mr. Bennett,

I write in response to your email of the 31st March 2010, and further to your previous email of the 19th March, in which you requested access to information about a meeting between the Home Secretary and parents of Madeline McCann.

The twelve questions you asked are being considered as a request for information under the Freedom of Information Act 2000 (the Act).

Your request has been allocated to the appropriate unit in the Home Office to handle and, as specified under section 10(1) of the Act, we aim to send you a full response within 20 working days of our receiving your request. Your request was received by the Home Office on the 22nd March 2010 and you should receive a response by the 21st April 2010.

If you have any queries regarding the handling of this request or would like to discuss the substance of your request with, please feel free to contact me at your convenience.

Yours sincerely,

Ian Lister
